

My dad is pretty bad now. No physical food. He is tube-fed and likely be connected to an epidural pain killer. They give him days now. It has been a crazy week and another one is coming that would be worse.

Olga and I witnessed a miracle yesterday visiting him after church. We had a conversation similar to what you had with your dying mother. Usually sedated and feeble he came to, joked a lot and himself talked about departing this world. When asked about meeting God he spoke for 5 minutes giving one of the clearest testimonies of salvation I have ever heard. Olga and I were in tears hearing him say that he did not live as a sinner in the sight of men but was a sinner in the eyes of God but through Jesus and His sacrifice with his faith in His resurrection he can now face God and enter Heaven. Not afraid of dying no more, ready to go fully satisfied with everything and in peace! Praise the Lord!

That was an answer to Olga and I's prayer to receive some kind of assurance of his salvation. Through how it happened and what was said I do believe he has accepted Christ and we rejoice as never before.

Please, pray for God to take him painlessly now and thank you for all your prayers and concern. Pray for my mom as she is drained emotionally already. My sister with her daughter flew in from Holland. We may have a funeral this week. God is good!

Had a good Thanksgiving service and sermon this Sunday at pastor Ivan's church, lots of people came.

Shalom,
EK
